Standard Thermatite Warranty

The company warrants equipment or material to be free from defects in material or workmanship under normal use and service, its obligation under this warranty being limited to the repair or replacement of any part or parts of its own manufacturing which shall, within one year after date of shipment of such equipment to the purchaser, be proven to the company's sole satisfaction to have been defective in material or workmanship. Provide further that the purchaser shall have given the company notice of such alleged defects promptly, and further provided that the said material or equipment shall be maintained in its original installation or shall have been in the continuous possession of the original user. This warranty is expressly in lieu of all other warranties expressed or implied including, but not limited to, any warranty or merchantability, and of all other obligation and liabilities on the company's part. The company neither assumes nor authorizes any person to assume for it any other liability in connection with the sale of its material or equipment. There are no other warranties, which extend beyond the description on the face hereof. Manufacturer makes no representations what so ever in regard to performance ability of items manufactured. This warranty shall not apply to any material or equipment which shall have been repaired or used outside the company's factory in any way so as in the company's sole judgement to affect its workability or reliability, nor which has been subjected to misuse, negligence, or accident of any description. Company makes no warranties what so ever in regard to merchandise, equipment, parts, or accessories not of the company's own manufacture. The company's liability in such cases being limited to such warranty, if any, as the manufacturer thereof may grant to the company and if none, to the warranties herein expressed. The company shall not be liable for direct or consequential damages of delays, if such occur, account of defective material or workmanship or delays or accelerations in shipment, nor will any allowance be granted for any repairs, alterations, work done or expense incurred in connection with any repairs, alterations, or replacements, except on specific authority from its head office at Mississauga, Ontario. The company shall in no way be liable or responsible for injuries or damages to persons or property arising out of the use or operation of all the materials or equipment herein described, including component parts thereof, and purchaser hereby agrees to indemnify and save harmless the company from all such liability and responsibility. The company reserves the right to make any changes in design, additions to and improvements in product without imposing any obligation upon itself to install them on its product previously manufactured. Measurements, weights, and dimensions are subject to variations and are not guaranteed by the company.
